Point Confort was established on land which had been in the Traplor family since 1866, Called the Swan Lake Pasture belonging to Josiah Claiborne Traylor. The land was surrounded by beings on two Bides and a deep creek on a third Iside. It was part of the Philip Demmitt Swoveg. Mr. Demmitt was Sponsored by 5tephen F. Austin, In 1830 the established a port there. He was a leader in the Texas Revolution On the east side of Lavaca Bay. was once a port called "Cox's Point. which dame into existence shortly before the days of the lexas Republic Thomas Cox tought in the Battle of San Tacinto and had lived at Cox's Point and founded the port. Cox's Creek and Cox's Boy are named for him. Coxs Point had a wharf and warehouse and was one of the places designated in December, 1835, by lexas General Sam traston as an immigration entry point for lexas army voluntaers. This land was used for cattle arazing until faint